RE-LAUNCHED WEB SITE Many New Features and Improvements

We are pleased to advise that we have re-launched our web site. While it retains a similar appearance to the previous site, it has been substantially changed to incorporate the following new features and improvements:

- more information about our products including Frequently Asked Questions.
- on-line sales of all of our products to international customers and some products to Australian & New Zealand customers.
- search facility to allow customers to find dealers in their area.
- credit card account payments by dealers.

More details of these are shown on the next page. The web address of the site remains the same at

FIND A DEALER

We have incorporated a search function which allows customers to enter their location, either by place name or postcode, in both Australia and New Zealand, and obtain a listing of all of our dealers in that area. The listing gives the name, address, telephone and email contact details and a location map for each dealer.

Find a Dealer

We have Dealer's throughout Australia and New Zealand, find your nearest Bogaard Distributor using the search form below.

ON-LINE SALES

We are introducing on-line retail sales of all of our products to international (outside Australia and New Zealand) customers. In addition we will be undertaking on-line retail sales of our HillsSpeed Digital Speedometers to Australian and New Zealand customers.

Sales of our turbo timers, glow plug timers and DC converters will continue to be exclusively through our existing dealer network in Australia and New Zealand.

The web site has been carefully set up to require customer registration using credit card billing information before purchasing, to ensure that only sales of the correct type are possible to customers in each location.

Purchase quantities for all products have also been limited to prevent large scale buying and potential re-selling.
